The threat is already heard that, un-less the coal supply is materially in-presented in Danielson some public places will have to close, for no fuel will be allotted to heat them.

Souvenirs From France.

Friends here received on Friday souvenirs of France in the form of little silk handkerchiefs. They were forwarded by Private Adelard Barbeau and were made in the town where the regiment to which he is attached is stationed. The handkerchiefs have an embroidered set of allied flags, with that of the United States in the center.

Below Zero For Seventh Morning. Friday was the seventh consecutive morning during which the temperature in Danielson registered zero or far below that mark. Continued suffering from the cold was the lot of many families who live in poorly heated houses.

Tidings From England. Letters have been received here from Lorimer Dixon, who at the time the letters were written, about the mid-dle of December, was in England with the aviation section to which he is attached in clerical capacity.

Lying in Gutter at Midnight. On Bread street, near the High School building, with his face resting upon the ice-covered street, and wearing no overcoat. Officer John Macfarland found a man who had laid down to sleep in the gutter after the midnight hour, the temperature at the time being below zero. A person resident in that section saw the man lie down and sent the call for the officer.

Blake Residence Burned Out. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Biake lost all their household possessions in a fire that ravaged their home in Derby, in this state, where Mr. Blake, formerly a resident of Brooklyn, is superintendent of the trolley lines. Mrs. Blake is now visiting with relatives in this vicinity.

Honor Roll For State.

Wesley Wilson, clerk of the board of selectmen, is procuring a list of killingly men who are in the naval or army serof the United States. This town 39 selected men at Camp Devens many more in the coast artillery in the regular army and navy.

Captain Darbie's Application. Captain E. L. Darbie, reserve list, formerly commander of the Thirteent! Company, was prompt to take advan-tage of the suggestion, received here on Friday, that reserve officers send in their applications for appointment to officers' training schools. If Captain Darbie's request for service is promptly acted upon, he will go to Spartansburg, N. C., some time this

Frost Damage of $200.

It is estimated that the damage caused by the frost to pipes in the High School building cannot be repaired at an expense of much under $200. It is expected that repairs will be made in time to permit of resum-

THE COAL SITUATION.

Applicants Hounding Dealers For Fuel Meet Little Success.

"Don't learnd the coal dealers for coal." That was the advice being offered widnes by those who are in a position to know just how the fuel situating is in Danielson. It may be no thoritatively stated that the supply if hard coal in Danielson yards is limited and that it must be very arefully conserved to meet the most cient coal on hand to meet their im mediate needs should not ask for even the allotment of an extra pound, for there are familles who have no coal at

The mercury hit the zero mark again in Putnam Friday morning, keeping up the unprecedented cold wave and reducing some persons in whose homes there is only a small supply of fuel almost to a state of despair.

It is said that there may not be any formal protest over train removals that will reduce the service from this city on the Worcester-New London line if it can be shown with any degree of satisfaction that the trains will be restared after the coal famine is overcome.
